World Team Tennis

In 1975 Czechoslovakia's Martina Navratilova defected to the U.S. to improve her tennis. For a while, however, she seemed more interested in gobbling up pancakes and hamburgers, which she did with such gusto that she gained 20 pounds. Now, at age 21 and with that excess weight trimmed off, Navratilova is one of the finest woman players in the world, an aggressive lefty who won 37 straight matches early this year. As the World Team Tennis season winds down, Martina will lead Boston against New York on August 3, against Phoenix on the 10th and very likely into the playoffs, which HBO will cover the 18th and 25th. August 3,10,18,25

TONY DUFFY/SI

The House by the Lake

Chic model Brenda Vaccaro thinks she's off for a weekend of romance in the country. But Don Stroud and his hoodlum gang turn her daydream into a nightmare. Violence, nudity. (R-1:29) August 1,6,11

The Thief Who Came to Dinner

Computer analyst Ryan O'Neal, out for some monetary input, becomes the coolest thief of hot ice in Houston. Jacqueline Bisset (up from The Deep) co-stars. Adult situations. (PG-1:43) August 1,4

MacArthur Gregory Peck

Gregory Peck turns General MacArthur, the legend, into Douglas MacArthur, the man. He fathoms the complex personality of the five-star general who led us to victory over Japan, the commander we turned to when Korea exploded, the man fired for crossing a President. Saint, sinner, hero, villain, genius? Or was he all of these? "The riveting interest derives from the masterful performance of Gregory Peck." (L.A. Tribune) War violence. (PG-2:08) August 6,10,15,19,23,29

Patton George C. Scott

General George Patton ran roughshod through Europe of the '40s—and through Hollywood, as well, in our '70s. One of the most entertaining and intelligent of all war films, Patton won eight Oscars including Best Picture, Actor (George C. Scott), Director (Franklin Schaffner). Scott is the brash, flamboyant general; Karl Malden, his calm foil, Omar Bradley. "If stars wore stars, Scott would have five on his shoulder." (Gene Shalit) Rough language. (PG-2:50) August 5,8,20,30

Mandingo

A slave-breeding plantation of pre-Civil War Louisiana—and the strange band of people who live a nightmare there. Mandingo is based on the seven-million-copy bestseller. With James Mason, Perry King (Medical Center), sexy Susan George, heavyweight Ken Norton. "Lavish, brilliantly produced." (After Dark) Abusive language and physical violence; nudity. (R-2:07) August 5,9,13,18,28

Race for the Pennant

Who's in first? And who's trying to bump them out of there? As the scrambles for divisional titles become more intense, HBO will zero in on the leading contenders. This fascinating new half-hour show will go right up to the eve of the World Series, look at powerful Jim Rice and the rest of the slugging Red Sox, at the speedy Royals, the pitching-rich Giants, the surprising Cubs and all the other ballclubs that will be struggling to finish in first place. August 8,9,11,15,16,18,22,23,25,29,30

IS ARTUR ANONY

Gymnastics:

The American Cup Exhibition

Muscular Kurt Thomas and lithe Kathy Johnson have helped U.S. gymnasts gain international respect. An hour-long special will show both in a star-studded event loaded with standouts from more than 15 nations. Watch for Thomas' innovative routines on the high bar and pommel horse, and for Johnson on the bars. August 13,15,17

The Last Remake of Beau Geste

Ann-Margret, Michael York, Marty Feldman, Trevor Howard, James Earl Jones, Peter Ustinov, Henry Gibson, Terry Thomas in the same movie? Yes, they're all here—along with Gary Cooper in a “mirage” appearance from the '39 version of Beau Geste. Feldman, who also directed, spoofs every Foreign Legion film ever made in this zany take-off of a favorite. Mildly suggestive. (PG-1:23) August 11,14,20,26,30

Who is Bobby Deerfield? No one really knows—not the crowds who cheer him to victory in the Grand Prix, not the women who make love to him, nor the family reaching out to him. Superstar Al Pacino is brilliant in a role revealing his romantic talent. Lovely Marthe Keller co-stars and the sparks fly when they get together. European locales are beautiful. Language, partial nudity. (PG-2:04) August 13,17,21,26,30

Islands in the Stream

It took a great novelist like Ernest Hemingway to put this complex, moving saga of a man's inner struggle onto paper. It takes a great actor like George C. Scott to bring it to the screen. He gives one of his best performances. Co-starring Claire Bloom, David Hemmings. Franklin Schaffner directed. "A movie triumph... touches the heart in new and surprising ways." (Rex Reed) Mild language. (PG-1:50) August 25, 28

Cry For Me Billy

The U.S. Cavalry, runaway Indians, a gunfighter, drifter and a frightened but beautiful Indian girl clash in this saga of the old West. A touching relationship develops between Billy and the girl. But the screen explodes with action and horror as their idyllic happiness is violated—and Billy angrily seeks revenge. Nudity, violence. (R-1:33) August 26

Rollercoaster

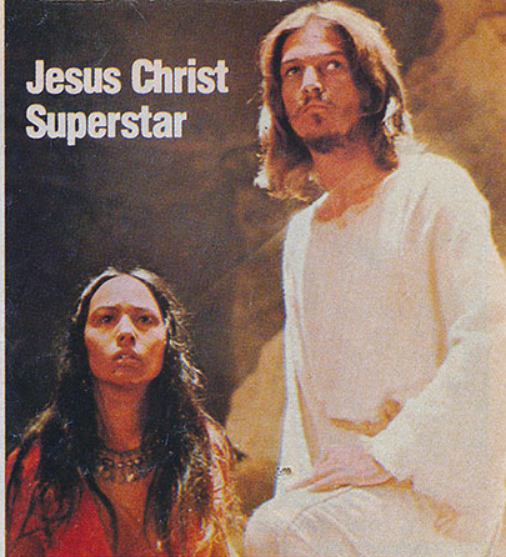

There's a menace loose in this amusement park and George Segal is out to get him. Richard Widmark is a gritty Federal agent, Henry Fonda, a safety exec. Mild language. (PG-1:57) August 3,8,11,16,19,28

Breaking Point

Judo master Bo Svenson goes beyond the law to protect himself when the mob threatens his family. Robert Culp is a cop who does nothing right. Mild language, violence. (PG-1:32) August 12,18,23,31

A spectacular adaptation of the hit Broadway rock opera and record album success, Jesus Christ Superstar has electrified audiences around the world. Filmed in the Holy Land at the actual locations of the biblical events it dramatizes, the film gains a telling new dimension. Its music soars, and its lyrics offer instant communion as they retell the seven last days in the life of Christ. Andre Previn conducts. With Ted Neeley, Carl Anderson and Yvonne Elliman. "Perhaps the most remarkable film to emerge since Cecil B. DeMille." (United Press International). (G-1:48) August 26,28

Inside the NFL

Here's a capsule of the 1977 season and a preview of 1978. Take a look again at Denver's "Orange Crush" defense, speedy Walter Payton rushing around, through and over everybody—and last year's Super champs, the Dallas Cowboys. Then size up this season: can the Oakland Raiders come back? How will the 12 new NFL coaches do this year? It's just the start! August 31

Real-to-Reel Wars

One of the things Hollywood has always done best is the war movie. During the country's first two hundred years, as we saw last month in America at the Movies, our nation fought wars in several different places for several different reasons.

The places changed, the reasons changed, but never the fighting men. Their stories have been told through memorable motion pictures: from the Civil War of The Birth of a Nation through the epics of World War I like The Big Parade and All Quiet on the Western Front—to the several realistic films about World War II, Korea and the Green Berets of Viet Nam.

Through the years, great directors have brought us great films about great heroes. The individual man at arms—Sergeant York, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, reporter Ernie Pyle, G.I. Audie Murphy—has held the Hollywood spotlight in turn for his courage.

Perhaps the greatest two films about the individual at war are Patton and MacArthur, biographies of two late, great World War II generals. Both outstanding war movies are being shown on HBO this month. We believe these two films, demonstrating what was bad as well as what was good about two American fighting legends, offer unique views of men at war.

We believe they also complement the excellent way in which history is taught in the American school system. What's more, Patton and MacArthur demonstrate how effectively cable TV can supplement current educational programs.
